

Summerhill Infant School English Knowledge Organiser

Key Stage 1 (Year 2)

Phonics and Spelling
Phoneme	A single unit of sound	b a t
Grapheme	A letter, or combination of letters, that a word	t en
Diagraph	A type of grapheme where two letters represent one phoneme (sound)		ea ch
Consonants	Most of the letters of the alphabet represent consonants; the letters a, e, i, o, u represent vowels
Vowels	The letters a, e, i, o, u
Segment	Break a word into phonemes		bat
Blend	Put the phonemes back together		bat
Key word/ Common exception word	A word which can't be phonetically decoded		the, knowledge
Compound word	A word that contains two or more root words		news + paper
Prefix	A prefix is added at the beginning of a word in order to turn it into another word		disappear
Suffix	A suffix is an 'ending', used at the end of one word to turn it into another word		teacher
Alien word	Words use to check phonic decoding skills which are not real word		m ea p
CVC	Consonant/vowel/consonant words		cat, dad, bat, dog
Homophone	Two words which sound the same but are written differently		hear & here
How to help?		Useful Links
<ul> <li>Learn your ch</li> <li>Encourage wr</li> <li>Encourage yo</li> </ul>	ng and spelling key words ild's spellings with them iting spelling words in sentences ur child to write stories, diaries, letters d to spot patterns in their spelling	We use Read, Write Inc. Phonics at Sumr School. You can find free resources for Re the Oxford Owl website- www.oxfordowl.co.uk You have a class log-in to access this site	ead, Write Inc. on

Reading
Vocabulary	Vocabulary The words that are used in the text.
Inference	Making assumptions about what is happening in a text from what you know.
Prediction	Guessing what is going to happen next based on what you have read.
Explain	To say what is happening in the text.
Retrieval	Finding information in a text.
Decoding	Breaking down a word into different parts to help read it (e.g. un-der-stand).
Comprehension	Understanding what you have read.
	How to help?
Try not to over correct when you read with your child
Read to your child
Visit the school Library
Visit local libraries
Read comics/magazines
Let your child see you read
<ul> <li>Make reading enjoyable, not a battle, let them read what interests them, e.g. recipes, instructions for games, shop</li> </ul>

• Make reading enjoyable- not a battle- let them read what interests them e.g. recipes, instructions for games, shop signs, subtitles or words to a known song

Punctuation
Capital letters	ABC	Come at the beginning of sentences	He went to the shop. They ran for the bus. Orange is my favourite colour.
Full stop	•	Come at the end of sentences	I like tomatoes. My name is Fred.
Question marks	?	Come at the end of questions	How old are you? What is your name?
Exclamation mark	1	Used for shouting or surprise	I cannot believe you just did that!
	,	Used to break up sentences	I understood him, but I was still mad.
Commas		Used to separate a list	I got milk, tea, butter and bread at the shop.

Grammar
	Adjectives Describing words		I bit into the juicy orange. The girls is very tall.
	Nouns	Naming words	I have a dog. She sat at the table. Close the door.
	Verbs	Doing words	He was jumping around. She went for a run.
	Pronouns	Refers to people but not by name	Are they going to the shop? I am not feeling well.
	Proper noun	A name used for individual people, places etc.	Harry is going to Tesco with Kate.
	Adverbs	Describes the verb (usually ends in ly)	He silently walked along the road.
	Questions	A sentence that requires a response	What do apples taste like? Why is it so noisy?
	Statement	Something which does not require a response	The sky is blue. I am hungry. I like dogs.
	Command	An order or instruction	Wash those dishes. Brush your hair. Go away.
	Tense	Tells you when something happened (past, present or future)	I went to the shops yesterday. I am on my way to the shop. Tomorrow I am going to the shops.
How to help?
<ul> <li>Remind your child to speak in grammatically accurate sentences</li> <li>Encourage your child to spot punctuation in their reading books</li> </ul>

Writing
Fiction Something that has not actually happened.
Non-fiction	Something that is true and factual.
Narrative writing	When writing is used to tell a story. There are many examples of narrative writing: novels; short stories; biographies; autobiographies; poems.
Descriptive writing	Focusses on describing the something in a lot of detail. This could be the character, the setting or the situation. This type of writing would use a lot of adjectives, adverbs and imaginative/figurative language. Poems are a good example of this.
How to help?
Don't over correct independent writing- aim for enthusiasm
Develop fine motor skills- threading, Hama beads
Practise letter formation			